

Welcome to the NWTA

The North West Territory Alliance (NWTA) was established as a non-profit organization in 1974 to re-create life during the American Revolution.

To represent both Military and Civilian life, we:

- re-create the fashion, arts, and culture of the revolution.
- duplicate the uniforms, weapons, and battlefield tactics.
- represent numerous roles including soldiers, sailors, frontiersmen, townsfolk, artists, merchants, and musicians!

By arranging events all over the Midwest, the NWTA entertains and talks with people about one of the most fascinating and crucial times in our nation's history. We:

- re-create battles with muskets, bayonets, and cannons.
- camp outside in canvas tents.
- build fires and cook recipes of the time.
- hold tomahawk (axe throwing) competitions.
- play musical instruments on and off the battlefield.

Our members have many different real-world occupations: business people, nurses, librarians, lawyers, pipe-fitters, students, machinists, teachers. They step away from their modern world for a weekend of 18th Century living.

Your kids will have fun too! They can learn to play a drum or fife, throw tomahawks, play 18th century cards, write with a quill pen, build a fire, and adventure around the camp — all things far outside their everyday experience.

Do you want to fire a musket, help crew a cannon or just enjoy an evening around the fire?

Come to one of our Events, and if you like what you see, talk to us about being our guest for a weekend.

Our Units are excited to host folks who want to try out the hobby.

They will supply the necessary gear and clothing for you (and your family) to join us for a weekend reenacting the American Revolution!

Email us at guest@nwta.com to find out more.
